

Hey unborn sister or brother. Hi I am your big brother Cameron but you can call me Cam. Oh wait the camera is tilted. Ahh it fell! Just one sec let me put it back up.

Ok that is better, now let me tell you something. 2 years ago I got a heart problem and it still makes me unwell to this day. And because of this, oh sorry one sec let me just move the camera back so you can see me better, well, where was I? Oh yes I know. Because of that, I can't run or go swimming or play football . Oh and please please please don't be annoying. Some of my friends have younger siblings and they are really annoying . Ok between you and me there is this one girl in my school, Julie. I have a crush on her. At this point I hope you're a boy. If you're a girl skip this bit... this is kind of boy to boy stuff. She has dark brown hair like the dirt in the forest with eyes as blue as the ocean and oh she is beautiful. Ok I am already thinking of some names for you. Alex, Penny, Ruby, Lily, Jeff. OK maybe not Jeff. I will take Bob off the list too. Ron, Harry, Bella, Izzy, Luner. I will stop there but I still have a whole list left . Well I think I will leave it there. I really hope I am recording, if not that is 15 minutes of my life wasted. Not like my whole life is being wasted.

Well bye little sibling.
